ELECTION SUPERVISORY BOARD

2026 CAMPUS-WIDE ELECTIONS

Resolution 2026-002

Issued: February 26, 2026

Ingole v. Waithe & Raich

Election Supervisory Board Resolution: 2026-002
In Res. Campaign Expenditure Records

Election Supervisory Board Chairman, Samuel J. Hecht, delivered the majority opinion of the board:

“In the matter of an Executive Alliance failing to reflect accurate campaign expenditure records.”

On Tuesday, February 24, 2026, at 12:04 A.M. CST, Daksh Ingole submitted a complaint (Complaint ID: 2) against the Executive Alliance, Jaylen Waithe, and Katarina Forster Raich, alleging that they violated Title II, Chapter VI, Subchapter C, §6.14 Campus-Wide Election Code:

“CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURE RECORDS. Each candidate must keep accurate and up-to-date records of all campaign receipts and expenditures. A template for financial disclosures for use by all candidates will be developed by the Election Supervisory Board and provided to each group by the first day of filing.”

Complaining party, Daksh Ingole, argued that the Executive Alliance, Jaylen Waithe, and Katarina Forster Raich, failed to list all their expenses as required per Title II, Chapter VI, Subchapter C, §6.14 Campus-Wide Election Code. Ingole stated that the Jaylen Waithe and Katarina Foster Raich Executive Alliance did not list their videography or high-quality drone footage in their Financial Disclosure #1, and only listed a $45.40 Micro SD Card. Ingole argues that the Jaylen Waithe and Katarina Foster Raich Executive Alliance should have listed the Fair Market Value of the drone and other photography equipment.

The Jaylen Waithe and Katarina Foster Raich Executive Alliance only listed a $45.40 Micro SD Card on their Financial Disclosure #1. They stated that this was the only item purchased for their campaign, thus far.

The Executive Alliance stated to the Board that the videography equipment and drone utilized in connection with campaign-related material were not purchased for the campaign, were not donated to the campaign, and remain the personal property of a registered Agent and/or worker, bought prior to the campaign, without the intention or knowledge for use on a future planned campaign.

The Executive Alliance stated that the videography equipment and drone used for their campaign were not purchased specifically for the campaign, nor were donated to the campaign, and were the property of a registered Agent and/or Worker, bought prior to the campaign, without the intention or knowledge for use on a future planned campaign.

Based on these facts, the Election Supervisory Board has ruled that the Jaylen Waithe and Katarina Foster Raich Executive Alliance did not violate Title II, Chapter VI, Subchapter C, §6.14 Campus-Wide Election Code.

In conclusion, The Election Supervisory Board submits its resolution on Thursday, February 26th, 2026, in an eight-to-zero majority of the board members who were present at the hearing.
